TxDOT has 25 districts that oversee routine maintenance and local projects. The districts can be divided into four geographical regions: North, South, East and West.