

The Texas Department of Transportation proposes amendments to §§4.21 and 4.25, relating to the department's conditional grant program, which provides financial assistance to eligible economically disadvantaged students who intend to work for the department in civil engineering or another profession for which there is a critical need. The amendments increase flexibility for both applicants and program administrators and provide greater outreach opportunities for the program to increase yearly applications.