

15.171 Summary

The Texas Department of Transportation proposes amendments to §§15.171 and 15.174, concerning state highway projects financed through the issuance of bonds and other public securities, by updating the definition of the Texas Highway Trunk System, which is a planned rural network that consists of designated divided roadways. The amendments also replace the term “accident” with “collision” in conformance with recent statutory changes.