

§25.3 Summary

The Texas Department of Transportation proposes the repeal of §25.3 relating to the department's installation of pay telephones at specified places. That rule was adopted in 1976 to authorize the department to install pay telephones; the rule has not been amended. All pay phones that were installed under this section have been removed.