KNOW.

What is human trafficking?

Human trafficking is modern-day slavery and involves the use of force, fraud or coercion to obtain some type of labor or commercial sex act. Thousands of men, women and children are trafficked into forced labor situations and into the sex trade. Many of these victims are lured from their homes with false promises of well-paying jobs; instead, they are forced or coerced into prostitution, domestic servitude or other types of forced labor.

WATCH.

Common indicators

- Does the victim work and/or live in a location with unreasonable high-security measures such as opaque or boarded windows, bars on windows or barbed wire?
- Does the victim exhibit bruises/wounds in various stages of healing or consistent with the application of physical restraints?
- Is the victim being dropped off and picked up a short time later from a van or RV that seems out of place, near trucks, for example.
- Does the victim exhibit signs of malnourishment, serious dental problems or a lack of healthcare?
- Does the victim exhibit disoriented, confused, depressed, submissive, tense or nervous/paranoid behavior?
- Is the victim accompanied by someone who is controlling them, who provides the victim's information or who does all the communicating?
